“He is your praise and He is your God, Who has done these great and awesome things for you which your eyes have seen.” - Deuteronomy 10:21

God has indeed done great and awesome things this school-year. We’re privileged to have seen His work and helped be a part of what He’s doing. We’d like to share Mark’s testimony with you:

Please pray:

- For the students heading home for the summer, that they’d have safe travels and continue to grow in the Lord.
- For the students staying in town, that they’d have a great summer, and go deeper in their relationship with Jesus.
- For the students who recently graduated, that they’d have grace in finding/starting new jobs.
- For Jaily, Areli, Kamri, Emily, and Ting. Also, for Fatima to give her life to Jesus.
- For our staff to have a fruitful summer in support raising and maturing in the Lord.

I made the decision to make Jesus my Lord and Savior my freshman year of high school, when I was 15. I had grown up in a religious household, but my experiences with churches were not the greatest. My outlook on church is that it was a place where people just go to look good on Sundays and do some sort of duty to please God. I had no interests in joining a church because I believed I could have a relationship with God on my own, and that I didn’t need to affiliate myself with people at church.

My first month on the USF campus, I ran into a campus minister with Cornerstone. After expressing my interest in doing a Bible study, I went through a few lessons before visiting the church. Once I saw how closely this church followed the Bible, and how the people interacted with one another, my perception on churches was changed. The members were living out their lives in a way I read about in the Bible. I am very thankful that God called me to this church and really renewed my outlook on my past experiences with church. I have been a part of this church for a little over a year now and have been on two spring break mission trips to the University of Central Florida, and have even seen one of my roommates come to know Jesus through our ministry on the campus. I have seen myself mature in my walk with the Lord and I see the value in having a body of believers supporting you every day. Being a part of this church has really taught me that God never intended for me to be alone, and He wanted me to be a part of a local church since I first committed my life to Him.

- Mark

School-year at a glance:

- 141 students prayed to give their lives to Jesus.
- We baptized 54 young men and women.
- We taught over 2900 Bible studies.

Thank you so much! Your faithful prayers and partnership help us to reach young people like Mark, and offer them the fellowship and friendship that is found in the life of the Church.
