Thanks for your faithful partnership with us in sharing the Gospel at USF. We are seeing a tremendous response. A multitude of students, hungry for the Word of God, are coming to church and meeting for Bible studies this semester. Through our evangelistic surveys we met 533 students the first week of school who would like to be part of a Bible study or attend church. This year 30 students are being trained and equipped as Bible study leaders to help us bring in this amazing harvest. One of these students, Gabe, got radically saved at the beginning of the summer. It is so encouraging to see a young Christian boldly sharing the Gospel with his peers. We know you will be encouraged by his testimony:

Last February I met a campus minister with Cornerstone Christian Church. He called and texted me about meeting for a Bible study, but I wasn't interested. I kept real busy in my life with school, work and mixed martial arts. I was great at MMA. I even became a Kickboxing instructor at a well-known school. Unfortunately I also drank and smoked as well. I soon began to feel depressed, empty and for some strange reason I truly felt that something bad was going to happen if I didn't change the way I lived. I needed a place to live and another job where I could work more hours. It seemed hopeless since I also needed to keep up with classes. My current job consisted of working with people who had mental disabilities and one day I took my client to a youth group at his high school.

A testimony I heard really impacted me, and I decided I needed to pursue a relationship with God. I texted the campus minister who had reached out to me months before and he brought me to Cornerstone Christian Church at USF. God knew exactly what I needed by leading me to this church. I surrendered my life to the Lord and got baptized shortly after. He blessed me with a house to live in with fellow Christians and He gave me a new job. Before I knew it, God called on me to begin sharing my testimony with other young men by helping to lead Bible studies.

To fully repent was not an easy thing to do, especially since I loved fighting and believed my main goal was to fight in the Ultimate Fighting Championship one day in front of thousands of people. But once I put that dream on the altar for God to take and use, I felt at ease with Him. I still train and teach MMA, but now Jesus is my number one no matter what I do. I can't bear being without Him. ~Gabe

Please pray with us:

- For Becky, a freshman that I am helping one of our Bible study leaders reach out to. We recently prayed with her to give her life to Jesus, so please pray for her to get a solid foundation in her new walk with the Lord.
- For Genesisia, who gave her life to Christ in April, for a solid foundation and that she can be a light to her family.
- For Brenda, Karlen, and Soshi to come into a personal relationship with Christ.
- For Chade, Lauren, Joyce, and Devan to build relationships in the church, to grow in their faith, and for boldness to share what God has done in their lives with their peers.
